Application to vote by proxy at a particular election or referendum

Voting by proxy

Proxy voting means that if you aren't able to cast your vote in person, you can have someone you trust cast your vote for you.

You can use this form to apply to vote for one particular election or referendum only. Both you and your proxy must be registered and eligible to vote.

A person can only be a proxy for close relatives and up to two other people at an election or referendum.

Close relatives are the spouse, civil partner, parent, grandparent, brother, sister, child or grandchild of the applicant.

How do I apply to vote by proxy?

1. You must ask someone who is willing and capable to be your proxy and vote on your behalf.
2. Fill in the proxy vote application form. You must give a reason why you want to vote by proxy, for example you may be abroad on holiday on polling day.
3. Make sure you complete all sections of the form and supply your date of birth and signature. You need to give your date of birth and signature on this application form. This information is needed to prevent fraud. If you are unable to sign this form, please contact the electoral registration office. You can find address details at the back of this form.
4. Return your form to the electoral registration office. You can find address details at the back of this form.

When applying for a new proxy vote, you must return your proxy vote application form by 5pm, 6 working days before the poll.

When changing or cancelling an existing proxy, postal or postal proxy vote, you must return your proxy vote application form by 5pm, 11 working days before the poll.

The deadline for changing or cancelling an existing proxy, postal or postal proxy may vary depending on which country you live in. Please visit electoralcommission.org.uk/proxyvote for more information about deadlines.

If you are not already registered to vote, you must register before applying for a proxy vote. The deadline to register to vote is midnight, 12 working days before the poll. Register to vote online at www.gov.uk/register-to-vote

What happens after I've returned this form?

- Your proxy must go to your polling station to vote on your behalf. If your proxy cannot get to the polling station, they can apply to vote for you by post. The deadline for returning a postal vote application may vary depending on which country you live in. Please visit electoralcommission.org.uk/postalvote for more information about deadlines. They can contact your local electoral registration office for more details and to request a further application form. Contact details can be found at the back of this form.
- Your proxy will be sent a proxy poll card, telling them where and when to vote on your behalf.
- You should let your proxy know how you want them to vote on your behalf, for example, which candidate, party or outcome.
- If it turns out that you are able to go to the polling station on polling day, you can vote in person as long as your proxy has not already done so or has not applied to vote for you by post.
