

Who am I?

As the Assessor for Scottish Borders Council I have been appointed by Scottish Borders Council in accordance with the Local Government etc (Scotland) Act 1994. My office is located at Old School Building, Council Headquarters, Newtown St Boswells, Melrose, TD6 0SA and you can contact my Data Protection Officer, Nuala McKinlay, by post at The Information Management Team, Legal & Licensing, Regulatory Services, Scottish Borders Council Headquarters, Newtown St Boswells, Melrose, TD6 0SA, by email at: dataprotection@scotborders.gov.uk, and by telephone on 0300 100 1800.

Why do I need your personal information and what do I do with it?

You are giving me your personal information to allow me to compile, publish and maintain the Valuation Roll and Council Tax Valuation List. I may also use your information to contact you by post, email or telephone and to maintain my records. If you do not wish me to contact you by email or by telephone please let me know. You can do this by phoning the Assessor's Office on 01835825100 or by emailing assessor@scotborders.gov.uk.

Legal basis for using your information:

You can find more details of my role on our website at www.saa.gov.uk/scottishborders. Processing your personal information is necessary for the performance of my public task to compile, publish and maintain the Valuation Roll and Council Tax Valuation List in accordance with the Local Government (Scotland) Act 1975 and the Local Government Finance Act 1992.

Failure to provide information:

If you do not provide me with the information I have asked for then I will not be able to fulfil my statutory function. Under Finance & Valuation Acts you may be liable for financial penalties for non-compliance.

Who do I share your information with?

I am legally obliged to safeguard public funds so I am required to verify and check your details internally for fraud prevention. I may share this information with other public bodies for the same purpose. I am also legally obliged to share certain data with other public bodies such as HMRC and will do so where the law requires this. I will also generally comply with requests for specific information from other regulatory and law enforcement bodies where this is necessary and appropriate. Your information is also analysed internally to help us improve our services. This data sharing is in accordance with Scottish Borders Council's Record Management Policy in terms of the Public Records (Scotland) Act 2011.

I sometimes need to share your personal information with other organisations. Where this is necessary I am required to comply with all aspects of the Data Protection Act 2018. What follows is a description of the types of organisation I may need to share some of the information I process for one or more reasons. Where appropriate your information will be anonymised before it is shared with an organisation.

Where necessary or required I may share information with:-

Other Assessors

Scottish Borders Council Valuation Authority

The Electoral Registration Officer for Scottish Borders Council

Valuation Office Agency

Government Bodies

Office for National Statistics

Flood Re Limited

Organisations who process your personal data on my behalf, for example, delivery organisations, mailing houses and contractors or consultants. These organisations are carefully selected and measures are put in place to protect your information.

Where necessary or required I may also share information during the disposal of appeals or complaints against an entry in the Valuation Roll or Council Tax Valuation List.

International transfers:

We do not transfer information overseas, however some of the organisations we share your information with may transfer this overseas. Where your information is transferred overseas with our permission we ensure suitable safeguards are in place. If you wish more information on the safeguards please contact me.

How long do I keep your information for?

I only keep your personal information for the minimum amount of time necessary. Sometimes this is set out in the law, but in most cases it is based on the business need. I maintain a records retention and disposal schedule which sets out how long I hold different types of information for. You can request a hard copy from the contact address stated above or in electronic form by emailing assessor@scotborders.gov.uk.

Your rights under data protection law:

- Access to your information – you have the right to request a copy of the personal information that I hold about you.
- Correcting your information – I want to make sure that your personal information is accurate, complete and up to date. Therefore you may ask me to correct any personal information about you that you believe does not meet these standards.
- Deletion of your information – you have the right to ask me to delete personal information about you where:
 - I. you think that I no longer need to hold the information for the purposes for which it was originally obtained
 - II. you have a genuine objection to my use of your personal information –
 - III. my use of your personal information is contrary to law or our other legal obligations

Please contact me as stated above if you wish to exercise any of these rights.

Information you have given me about other people:

If you have provided me with anyone else's details, please make sure that you have told them that you have given their information to me. I will only use this information to compile, publish and maintain the Valuation Roll and Council Tax Valuation List.

If they want any more information on how I will use their information they can visit my web site at www.saa.gov.uk/scottishborders or email assessor@scotborders.gov.uk.

Complaints:

I aim to directly resolve all complaints about how I handle personal information. However, you also have the right to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioner's Office, who can be contacted by post at: Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire, SK9 5AF.
